A Bright Spot Amidst Defeat- Mikyle Louis Ignites Patriotism On Home Soil

Despite the St. Kitts and Nevis Patriots suffering five consecutive defeats on their home franchise venue at the Warner Park Cricket Stadium in St. Kitts, a patriotic beacon of hope has emerged in the person of 23-year-old Kittitian cricketer Mikyle Louis.

As the only native who played for the squad, Louis has captured the admiration of local fans and cricket enthusiasts with his impressive performances which includes him having earned play of the day spotlights. While the team may have been struggling, Louis' standout display has proven that he is a rising star hailing from the 'small but tallawah' twin island Federation.

Louis' presence on the field has electrified fans, who have praised him for his undeniable talent and his ability to rise to the occasion. In the midst of challenging matches, Louis continued to showcase his skill and substance, reminding us all why he is an asset to the team. His performances quickly became a source of pride for the Federation, especially as the nation gears up to celebrate its 41st anniversary of independence.

Playing before a home crowd, Louis has embodied the very essence of patriotism. He has been applauded for giving his all, demonstrating not only his commitment to the game but also his dedication to representing his country on an international stage. There is no doubt that Louis has provided a much-needed morale boost, offering fans a dose of national pride in a time of defeat.

It is clear that Louis has won the hearts of the people, reminding us all of the importance of perseverance and pride in the face of adversity. His grit and determination should serve as an inspiration for all citizens of St. Kitts and Nevis. Louis has shown us that no matter the challenges, we can-and must-give our best in representing our country.

As we approach Independence Day, Louis' performance should remind us all of our shared responsibility as citizens to strive for excellence. Whether on the cricket field or in our day-to-day lives, we can take a page from Louis' book by always doing our best for the betterment of our nation.

His passion for the game and his country is exactly what we need as we celebrate another year of independence-a true testament to what it means to be a patriot.

Local Cricket Fans Rate Patriots Performance

By: Precious Mills

BASSETERRE, St.Kitts (Thursday 12th September 2024)- Following the St. Kitts-Nevis Patriots’s fifth consecutive defeat on home soil at Warner Park on Sunday 8th September 2024, losing by two wickets to Antigua and Barbuda Falcons, this media house interacted with fans and sports enthusiasts from various walks of life, quizzing them about their enjoyment of the matches and their impressions of the Patriots’ performance.

Here is what they had to say:

Ronald Persaud and his nine-year-old daughter Ariana

Ronald-In St.Kitts, I think Patriots performed terrible. I don’t believe they go to the plans that they had in mind.Maybe Fletcher, the captain, had some plans but nobody acknowledged it the way the it supposed to go. But St. Kitts-Nevis will definitely win on the road. I hope they have to win the next five games they have, and I believe they’ll win the next five games and enter the preliminary round and get to the final. So these are the preliminary rounds, I hope they step up their game. Today was a tough game. They shot like 20 runs but that’s cricket. Cricket is up and down. You never know.

Ariana-St.Kitts [and Nevis] always lose on their home ground. I don’t know why. Like why? Like all other matches, when it’s not like in the home ground, they win but when it comes here, they’re not winning. They have to win on their home ground because this is their home ground.

Teshari Liburd (standing right) Well-known entrepreneur

Well, it’s been a wonderful five days liming. The limings been good; it’s been good to be out. I mean, being in action to think it’s always a plus but Patriots

BASSETTERE, St. Kitts, September 06, 2024 (SKNIS): The Honourable Isalean Phillip, Senator and Co-Chair of the Task Force on Citizen Security, called for national unity in the fight against crime during her remarks at the official launch of the National Consultations and 90-Day Campaign Against Crime and Violence at the CUNA Caribbean Conference Centre earlier today, Friday, September 06, 2024.

This initiative, led by the Government of St. Kitts and Nevis, aims to bring the nation together to address the root causes of crime and violence through a whole-of-society approach.

Lecture Series Speaker Launches Mentorship Programme

By: Spokesman Newsroom

BASSETTERRE, St. Kitts (Wednesday, 11th September 2024) - “I believe that finding a good mentor is invaluable and can be important for young people to navigate the complexities of career choices and personal growth. In addition, I fully understand that not all of our young people have access to professional mentors to help them navigate the trail to professions that may interest them.”

So said Featured Speaker at the Prime Minister’s Lecture Series held on Tuesday 10th September 2024 Business Executive, Attorney, Diplomat Lecturer and Public Relations Hadiya Claxton of St.Kitts-Nevis, ahead of officially launching a mentorship programme called Trailblaze SKN, aimed at empowering teens and young adults in St. Kitts and Nevis.

The lecture series event was held at the Sir Cecil Jacobs Auditorium at the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank (ECCB) located in Bird Rock, St.Kitts as part of the federation’s 41st Independence anniversary celebration under the theme ‘Together, A People, Proud and Strong: Independence 41.’

Among those in attendance were Governor General Dame Marcella Liburd, Prime Minister Dr. Terrance Drew and his wife Diani Prince-Drew, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Youth and Education Dr. Geoffrey Hanley as well as scores of high school students.

Of note, Claxton is a Special Envoy for Investment, Development, and International Business Relations in the Office of the Prime Minister.

As understood, the programme, of which she would be one of the mentors, is designed to provide professional mentorship opportunities and guidance for young people, helping them navigate career choices and personal growth.

“I now announce Trailblaze SKN will be a professional mentorship program for teens and young adults,” Claxton said as she addressed the audience at the event.

“I will serve as a mentor myself, and I have already enlisted quite a number of professionals from the St. Kitts and Nevis diaspora, both locally and abroad.”

According to her: “I have invested much time and effort so far in making advancements in educational opportunities for citizens and residents of St. Kitts and Nevis, and the Trailblaze program is another step toward further progress. We want mentors in this program to be able to truly invest the time needed to develop lasting relationships with their mentees. We also want to make sure that the mentees who are a part of this program are actually interested in themselves and are invested in their own growth.”

Claxton explained that the mentorship program is more than just a platform for career advice as it is a commitment to the development of the next generation of leaders, innovators, and professionals.

“I believe that every young person has the potential to be a trailblazer, to leave a mark and to lead with confidence and with purpose. In this program, our mentors, seasoned professionals who have walked their own unique paths, will share their knowledge, their experience, and their insights. They will serve as guides, helping our mentees to navigate the complexities of college choices, career choices, personal development, and the challenges that simply come with growth. But just as importantly, they will be there to listen, to encourage, and to spark the passion that lies within each of our participants. Trailblaze SKN is built on the belief that mentorship is a two-way street. It’s about forging relationships that transcend the traditional boundaries of teaching and learning, creating a community where ideas flow freely and dreams can be nurtured.”

“...I fully understand that not all of our young people have access to professional mentors to help them navigate the trail to professions that may interest them.”

As highlighted by Claxton, the programme will not only involve local professionals but also tap into the St. Kitts and Nevis diaspora, including professionals from across the greater Caribbean region.

Furthermore, the mentors will be paired with teens and young adults to provide guidance and support as they navigate their own career paths. She said the programme will also focus on personal development, ensuring that participants are well-rounded and ready to tackle the challenges ahead.

“Our mission is simple yet profound. To equip teens and young adults with the tools, with guidance, and inspiration that they need to carve their own paths in the professional world.”

The announcement of the mentorship program comes at a time when St. Kitts and Nevis is celebrating 41 years of independence. Claxton tied the program’s goals to the broader national spirit of progress and development, encouraging the younger generation to step up and take charge of their future.

“As we celebrate 41 years of independence, remember that this moment is not just about looking back, but about looking forward. You are the architects of our nation’s success. Your ideas, your energy, and your ambition will shape what our islands become in the years ahead.”

Claxton called on young people to embrace opportunities for learning and personal growth, stressing that education extends beyond earning a degree.

As encouraged by her: “Take every opportunity to expand your knowledge and skills. I still embrace every opportunity to read-absolutely every opportunity to read any kind of book that is available for me to read. Education is not just about a degree. While sometimes a degree may be what is needed along your path, education is not just about a degree. It’s about growing and evolving through your life.”

Claxton also called upon the business community in St. Kitts and Nevis to get involved, asking for professionals willing to offer their time and expertise as mentors.

She mentioned that those interested could reach out via email to become part of the Trailblaze SKN initiative.

“I would like to ask the business community here in St. Kitts and Nevis to reach out to the Ministry of Education if you are interested in becoming a mentor and being matched to a student through the Trailblaze SKN program,” she said.

Claxton underscored the vision she has for Trailblaze SKN.

“My vision for Trailblaze SKN is bold. We aim to inspire a generation of young professionals who are not just prepared to enter the workforce but are ready to redefine it,” she said. “Together, we will create a legacy of excellence, one Trailblazer at a time.”

Interested individuals are asked to make contact via email at trailblazeskn@gmail.com.

St. Kitts and Nevis Maintains Visa-Free Access To The UK With Introduction Of Worldwide Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA)

BASSETTERRE, St. Kitts, September 11, 2024 (SKNIS): Government of St. Kitts and Nevis is pleased to announce that nationals of the Federation will maintain their visa-free access to the United Kingdom (UK) through the upcoming rollout of the UK Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA) scheme. The ETA, which applies to short-term stays for tourism, study, or business, will be a requirement starting in 2025.

Starting November 27, 2024, nationals of St. Kitts and Nevis will be able to apply for the UK ETA using an app or online portal. This new system will officially come into effect on January 08, 2025. The ETA will allow for multiple entries into the UK over a period of two years or until the expiration of the traveller's passport, whichever is sooner.

The introduction of the UK ETA is part of the UK's efforts to enhance border security while ensuring smoother entry for non-visa nationals. As noted in the official communication from the UK Government, the process is designed to be efficient, taking an average of 10 minutes to complete, with a nominal fee of £10. The UK ETA will be required for nationals travelling for stays of less than six months, including holidays, short-term study, and business trips.

The ETA rollout, which will also apply to other CARICOM nations, the USA, Europe, and other regions, ensures that St. Kitts and Nevis continues to enjoy seamless access to the UK without the need for a traditional visa.

Prime Minister Dr. Terrance Drew expressed confidence that this streamlined process will benefit citizens of St. Kitts and Nevis, enabling easier and quicker access to the UK. He also highlighted the continued close cooperation between the Government of St. Kitts and Nevis and the UK to maintain strong bilateral relations.

For more information on the UK ETA and how to apply, please visit the UK Government's website at <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/apply-for-an-electronic-travel-authorisation-eta>.

Cabinet Touts Education Transformation In St. Kitts and Nevis

Basseterre, St. Kitts, September 12, 2024 (SKNIS): Government's efforts to transform St. Kitts and Nevis' education system to meet the needs of a modern society is being shared with students across St. Kitts by various ministers of government during the annual Independence Cabinet Schools Visits.

"We believe that education is critically important to advance our people so that ten, fifteen or twenty years from now, you who are the students of Saddler's and the students around the entire country, will be proud to represent us in our older years, as you become the ministers of government and we become retired citizens," the senior minister stated during the traditional Cabinet Schools Visits, which began on September 05, 2024. "That's why education is important. That is why we say you must prepare yourselves for the future ..."

Dr. Douglas highlighted that the education landscape in the Federation is being transformed with new initiatives designed to ensure that local students are as competitive as their peers around the globe.

These changes bring a fresh wave of innovation to learning such as utilising smart learning tools in the classroom, revamping aspects of the primary and secondary school curricula, introducing groundbreaking courses at the C. F. Bryant College, expanding scholarships for higher education and technical training, and establishing additional partnerships with top regional and global universities.

"Education is critical to the survival of our independent country and you, our citizens, must understand that you have a role to play," said Dr. Douglas.

Prime Minister the Honourable Dr. Terrance Drew praised the principals, teachers and support staff at various schools across St. Kitts and Nevis for their dedication and tireless efforts in nurturing the nation's children. He emphasized the significance of the country's sovereignty some 41 years ago (September 19, 1983) and challenged the students to dream big and work diligently to accomplish their aspirations thereby adding to the celebration of national achievements.

The Cabinet Schools Visits conclude on September 17, 2024.

themselves have been disappointing.

I mean, I don't know a lot about the game but I believe that the guy, Mikyle Louis, the local guy, he's on home soil and he proved himself from since day one. I believe he should have been moved up in the batting order. We had persons like Fletcher and Rutherford coming in and outing for one, two, not and then they continuously kept bringing them up to fourth and kept bringing Louis fifth. I don't like that. That should not have been. We needed to win at least one game on the home soil. I don't like that we did not.

Jason Ian Barrett (Member of the St.Kitts-Nevis Association of Persons with Disabilities)

Well, first of all, I'm glad that the tickets have been donated to me so I don't have to worry about paying for them. I work at McKnight Community Centre for the association for the disabled. The CPL people donate the tickets to us every year. So I thank them for the tickets they donated to us. When I was at the job earlier this week, I got two tickets for Sunday...but my neighbour said he had to go work today. So I came with the tickets and I gave somebody one and I take the other one. So it was nice. The game was nice. Well, they perform in a kind of way but when they catch the ball, they keep dropping the ball at it; they were right under the ball and they keep dropping the ball and that's what makes me mad. So I can imagine that if I had bet money, I would have lost. In some games they catch the ball and some games they drop the ball.

Troy Liburd (Minister of Education and Youth-Nevis Island Administration)

I'm one who is a lover of cricket, playing a little bit of cricket myself as a youth and so it's always a good opportunity for the people of the Federation to come out together to enjoy some good cricket. I am a little bit disappointed that our home team did not win any games here at home, but hopefully going forward through the tournament we'll see them get some victories. Besides that, I enjoyed the atmosphere very much. Of course I'd say overall the games were very, very nice games, competitive games. Even though we didn't come out the winners of games, they were still very competitive. So I enjoyed myself. I know that a lot of other persons had that opportunity to enjoy themselves. Quite a lot of us from Nevis came over every night and today and so that's always a good thing when we have that interaction between the people of the Federation so I look forward to more CPL and more cricket in general. Awesome. I actually enjoyed watching Mikyle Louis play and I think he has a bright future. Louis is somebody who following cricket I've seen him play a lot of cricket in Nevis with highlights in Nevis he plays a lot of cricket there and so I have seen him play over the years and I've known that he has that talent he now has the opportunity to showcase that talent for the entire world and I think he has done well with the opportunities that he has gotten he made a 50 earlier in the week and he made 60 something today so I think he has a really bright future and I'm looking forward to seeing him go from strength to strength."

Lillian Richardson (Best Dress U$500 winner during the matches played)

Well, not because they lost all the games but to me I had a wonderful time. I enjoy myself and ...to me, they've done a good job. They might lose, but if you look at it, they get wickets and they make runs. Because they make up to 200 and something, so to me, that's great runs. But where they are lacking, I don't really know but all I say, better luck next time and I have faith in them. Maybe they can't win in St.Kitts but they can win overseas; you never know. We had a wonderful time. It was great, for true. Lots of fun, meeting people. The party atmosphere was just wonderful. Everything was good. You (fans) don't just come out here to say really they (Patriots) must win but you make sure you come and you show your support. Most of the people, like, they will just sit down and they will say nothing. Well, I will bang my mouth 24-7. Then only if they make a six, they get out by the opposition, then they would make a noise but to me, they (fans) need to come and make some noise. And something what I think they should do too, make some t-shirts of your country fellow men, like of Mikyle Louis and the other athletes from the Caribbean. They can make some t-shirts of them, their own persons and put them along with the CPL t-shirt, and sell them in the country. So for instance, you come out and come back with a Mikyle Louis shirt; full up the stadium with Mikyle Louis shirts. Then they go to the next country, maybe Antigua, Antigua person, they got on all Antigua shirts.

Joseph 'De Awesome Navigator' Bergan (Well-known Calypsonian)

Well, from what I've seen and from what I've heard, I think the Patriots made a good effort. And in anything you do, sometimes you're going to win some and you're going to lose some. But I trust and hope that when they play their other legs outside, I trust that they will be even more successful than they were at home. So that is just my two pence towards the whole thing.

Ohio leaders dismiss claims of migrants eating pets

Donald Trump used the presidential debate to invoke baseless claims about migrants in Springfield, Ohio

Leaders in the US state of Ohio are trying to douse baseless rumours that Haitian immigrants in a town there have been eating residents' pets as food.

The allegations have percolated up through right-wing media and were amplified by Donald Trump at his presidential debate with Kamala Harris on Tuesday.

"This is something that came up on the internet, and the internet can be quite crazy sometimes," Ohio Governor Mike DeWine said.

On Tuesday, a parent in the town of Springfield accused Republicans of politically exploiting his son's death in a crash caused by a Haitian migrant.

Trump repeats baseless claim about Haitian immigrants eating pets

Eating pets, inflation, abortion - key debate claims fact-checked

Authorities say some 15,000 migrants of Haitian origin have resettled over the past couple of years in Springfield, a south-western Ohio town with a population of less than 60,000 people.

Some local residents have expressed frustration over the influx, saying the newcomers are straining city resources, from housing to healthcare.

In recent weeks unsubstantiated claims have surfaced on social media that the migrants are abducting and eating animals, from pet cats and dogs to park ducks.

Trump, his running mate JD Vance, the world's richest man Elon Musk and other conservatives have amplified the reports.

But Springfield Mayor Rob Rue said on Tuesday that "we have not been able to verify any credible reports or specific claims of pets being harmed, injured or abused by individuals within the immigrant community".

"The news story regarding a cat being killed or consumed did not originate in Springfield," he added. "It actually involved a Canton woman who was arrested for animal cruelty last month."

Canton is an Ohio city north-east of Springfield.

"I think we go with what the mayor says," Governor DeWine told CBS on Wednesday. "He knows his city."

A moderate Republican who has endorsed Trump's re-election bid, DeWine has pledged to invest in Springfield's healthcare and education systems to address its "unprecedented" population increase, but he also defended the newcomers.

"These Haitians came in here to work because there were jobs, and they filled a lot of jobs. And if you talk to employers, they've done a very, very good job and they work very, very hard," he said.

On Thursday Springfield officials evacuated city hall following reports of a bomb threat. It is not yet known whether the incident was connected to the immigration controversy.

Last year a Haitian immigrant driving without a valid US licence crashed his minivan into a school bus in the town.

One student - Aiden Clark, 11 - died after being thrown from the bus as it flipped, while 20 others were sent to the hospital.

The driver, Hermanio Joseph, was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter and felony vehicular homicide, and sentenced to nine to 13-and-a-half years in prison.

On Monday, the Trump campaign's X account posted side-by-side photos of Aiden and Joseph, and attacked Vice-President Harris' immigration policies before the presidential debate.

At a city commission meeting the next day, Aiden's father, Nathan, said he wished his child had been killed "by a 60-year-old white man" so "the incessant group of hate-spewing people would leave us alone".

The Trump campaign told the BBC it was "deeply sorry to the Clark family for the loss of their son".

"We hope the media will continue to cover the stories of the very real suffering and tragedies experienced by the people of Springfield, Ohio, due to the influx of illegal Haitian immigrants in their community," the campaign said.

Just a few hours after Mr Clark spoke, Trump repeated the claims about Haitian immigrants eating pets in a TV debate watched by more than 67 million viewers.

SKELEC Restores Power To Telecommunications And Broadcasting Companies At Ottley's Level

Basseterre, St. Kitts (11th September, 2024) - The St. Kitts Electricity Company Ltd wishes to advise that power has been restored to all telecommunications and broadcasting companies that have been affected by a recent extended outage at Ottley's Level.

As stated previously, the delay in restoration to the affected area was due to the high-risk nature of the area including overgrown vegetation, altitude, and the area's overall terrain. SKELEC, having completed its tendering process, selected an independent contractor to complete aspects of the work at Ottley's Level and was finally able to energize the area over the weekend.

According to SKELEC's General Manager, Clement Williams, while restoration work may have been delayed, we are pleased that the teams were able to restore power to all affected safely. "While restoration may have taken longer than some may have anticipated the company had to ensure that there was due diligence in the completion of the work," he said. "We explored several options and finalised the best course of action for restoration taking into consideration the cost, risk factor, and complete time for restoration. Our aim now is to continue to explore long term strategies to ensure minimal interruptions at Ottley's Level."

CDB, OECS, World Bank Working to Increase Procurement Opportunities for Caribbean Businesses

September 6, 2024, BRIDGETOWN, Barbados - The Caribbean Development Bank (CDB, the Bank) in partnership with the Organisation of Eastern Caribbean States Commission (OECS) and the World Bank hosted a two-day event for regional businesses to take full advantage of procurement opportunities offered by their projects.

The initiative, called the CDB, OECS, WB Procurement Fair, took place in Saint Lucia on September 4-5. It brought together over 600 suppliers, contractors, and consultants to provide them with useful information and tools to submit successful bids for projects funded by these organisations.

Mr. Doug Fraser, the Head of Procurement at CDB, emphasised the importance of the collaboration, "The Bank recognises the crucial role that the private sector plays in providing goods, works and services to the projects we finance to help our clients to achieve their development outcomes... Without suppliers, contractors and consultants none of our projects would be possible. Our engagement here with the private and public sector provides solutions and innovations that are key to driving Caribbean economic development and reducing poverty."

Government procurement plays a significant role in the Caribbean economy, accounting for a large part of the region's Gross Domestic Product (GDP). Improving procurement processes can help make better use of limited resources, stimulate private sector growth, and support the development of stronger, more inclusive economies.

Remarking on the value procurement can add to local economies, Ms. Lilia Burunciuc, World Bank Director for the Caribbean said, "In the OECS, the World Bank finances projects totaling US$75M. Each project presents opportunities for local vendors, and we are pleased to build capacity - with the Caribbean Development Bank and the OECS Commission as partners - among the private sector, such that they can increasingly take advantage of these opportunities."

The event not only provided valuable information to potential contractors but also aimed to ensure that procurement for CDB's projects is done efficiently. By familiarising bidders with the requirements and processes of the financing agency, the event helped increase their chances of success. In 2023 alone, CDB awarded over USD 170 million in contracts for various projects, offering significant opportunities for Caribbean suppliers.

Commenting on the regional activity, OECS Director General Dr. Didacus Jules stated "The OECS is committed to fostering regional economic growth by enhancing procurement opportunities for our businesses. Through strategic partnerships like this one with the CDB and the World Bank, we aim to empower Caribbean suppliers, contractors, and consultants with the knowledge and tools they need to compete successfully in global markets. In the context of our Economic Union, we add value to Member States through pooled procurement of critical inputs to their prosperity and well-being at the most reasonable prices. By improving procurement processes, we can drive economic inclusion, maximise the region's resources, and contribute to the sustainable development of our economies."

Other speakers at the event included Ms. Roselyn Opel, Head of Pooled Procurement Services at the OECS Commission who highlighted that the Procurement Unit at the OECS Commission is committed to upholding transparency, probity, accountability, competition, fairness, efficiency and effectiveness in all processes. Also in attendance was Mr. Luciano Gutierrez Wuerzius, Procurement Specialist at the World Bank, along with project leaders from different sectors such as energy, environment, youth, health, education, and infrastructure.

Nadal withdraws from Laver Cup

Nadal is the second-most successful men's singles player of all time, behind only long-time rival Novak Djokovic

Published BBC Sport

Rafael Nadal has pulled out of this month's Laver Cup, saying he believes there are "other players who can help the team deliver the win" for Team Europe.

The 38-year-old Spaniard has not played since his defeat alongside compatriot Carlos Alcaraz in the quarter-finals of the men's doubles at the Paris Olympics in August.

A 22-time Grand Slam singles champion, Nadal did not confirm any specific injury or health concerns but he has previously indicated 2024 would be his last season

"I'm really disappointed to share that I won't be able to compete at the Laver Cup in Berlin next week," Nadal said.

"This is a team competition and to really support Team Europe, I need to do what's best for them and at this moment there are other players who can help the team deliver the win."

The Laver Cup, contested between Team Europe and Team World, starts in Berlin on 20 September.

Having hoped to play a full schedule in 2024, Nadal only competed at one of the four majors - the French Open, where he lost in the first round to Alexander Zverev.

After missing Wimbledon to focus on the Olympics, Nadal was hampered by a thigh problem in Paris and suffered a second-round loss in the men's singles to eventual gold medallist Novak Djokovic.

"I have so many great, emotional memories from playing Laver Cup and I was really looking forward to being with my teammates and with Bjorn in his final year as captain," added Nadal, who has previously made three Laver Cup appearances.

"I wish Team Europe the very best of luck and will be cheering them on from afar."

Ex-partner who killed Ugandan athlete dies from burns

Wycliffe Muia -BBC News, Nairobi

Rebecca Cheptegei died last week after being doused in petrol and set on fire by a former boyfriend

The former boyfriend of Ugandan Olympic athlete Rebecca Cheptegei, who killed her by setting her on fire, has himself died from burns sustained in the attack, a Kenyan hospital official has said.

Dickson Ndiema ambushed the marathon runner as she returned home from church more than a week ago. He then doused her with petrol and set her ablaze.

Local administrators said the two had been in conflict over a small piece of land in north-west Kenya, where Cheptegei lived and trained.

Ndiema died on Monday night at the intensive care unit, where according to the hospital, he had been admitted with burns on more than 40% of his body.

"He developed respiratory failure as a result of the severe airway burns and sepsis that led to his eventual death on Monday evening at 18:30 hours [15:30 GMT] despite life-saving measures," a press release from Moi Teaching and Referral Hospital said.

Cheptegei died last Thursday - four days after she was attacked. She suffered burns to more than 80% of her body.

I saw athlete on fire running towards me after attack, neighbour tells BBC

'Running for her family' - Olympian mourned after vicious attack

Neighbours said that on the day of the attack, they heard screams before Cheptegei came running towards them shouting for help.

Local media reported that Ndiema had sneaked into Cheptegei's home in western Kenya's Trans Nzoia county with a five-litre jerrycan full of petrol.

Some of the fuel he poured on Cheptegei splashed onto his own body, according to reports. As a result, Ndiema got caught in the fire after he set his former partner alight.

Ndiema was to face charges as police said they were treating Cheptegei's death as murder, with the former boyfriend named as the main suspect.

But now that Ndiema has died, the criminal case has been dropped and an inquest into the two deaths will be opened instead.

Both Ndiema and Cheptegei were admitted to Moi Hospital before their deaths.

Cheptegei's death shocked people across the world, with fellow Ugandans saying she was an inspiration to them.

The 33-year-old Olympian was the third female athlete to be killed in Kenya over the last three years. In each case, current or former romantic partners were named as the main suspects by police.

In 2021, world-record holder Agnes Tirop was stabbed to death and six months later Damaris Mutua was strangled.

"I don't wish bad things on anyone, but of course I would have loved for him to face the law as an example for others so that these attacks on women can stop," Beatrice Ayikoru, secretary-general of the Uganda Olympic Committee, told the Reuters news agency.

Some observers are saying that female athletes are becoming increasingly vulnerable.

"[This is] because they go against traditional gender norms where the woman is just in the kitchen and just cooking and taking care of kids. But now female athletes are becoming more independent, financially independent," Joan Chelimo, who co-founded Tirop's Angels to help highlight the issue of violence against women.

Cheptegei was born on the Kenyan side of the Kenya-Uganda border, but chose to cross over and represent Uganda to chase her athletics dream when she did not get a breakthrough in Kenya.

When she first got into running, she joined the Uganda People's Defence Forces in 2008 and rose to sergeant rank.

Her career included competing in this year's Paris Olympics. Although she came 44th in the marathon, people in her home area called her "champion".

She also won gold at the World Mountain and Trail Running Championships in Chiang Mai, Thailand, in 2022.

Cheptegei is set to be buried on Saturday at her ancestral home in Bukwo, Uganda.

Attacks on women have become a major concern in Kenya. In 2022 at least 34% of women said they had experienced physical violence, according to a national survey.

"We don't want this to happen to any other woman, whether an athlete or from the village, or a young girl," Rachel Kamweru, a spokesperson the the government's department for gender and affirmative action, told the BBC.
